

Bottanuco (Bergamo), 01 August 2010

Cassina Packaging Group represents and involves various entities which have been in business for many years in the industrial packaging sector. Altogether they have built up an inimitable wealth of skills, know-how and solutions. Cassina Group's products and services reach clients throughout the world, effectively contributing to the "creation of value" for its users, as suggested by the Group mission statement.

The story of Cassina Group began with Fustiplast, which still today - many years later - is its best-known and most recognised brand, both nationally and internationally. It is the brand that, more than all others, embodies and represents the guidelines shared by all our companies and aimed at efficiency, innovation and responsibility.

On this basis and with a view to simplifying the organisational structure of the various Group entities, Cassina Packaging Group has launched a plan for company reorganisation that involves, beginning from August 1st 2010, the reassessment of the Group Map and the centralisation of all operational activities in the newly-founded Fustiplast S.r.l..

All existing relationships and all activities linked to Fustiplast S.p.A., Multipack S.r.l., Impet S.r.l. and Plastinova Italiana S.p.A. will therefore report to the new parent company Fustiplast S.r.l..

In our opinion, this operation shall optimise the perception of the brand, enhance institutional and commercial communication, and streamline administrative management, while guaranteeing at the same time the complete continuity of our direction within the industry.

You will find attached below the new instructions on how to manage orders, tax documentation and the relevant administrative compliance activities: we invite you to read them with due care and to fulfil any potential new requirements according to the conditions described.

Renewing our commitment to our relationship and being certain that the reorganisation put into effect will contribute to improving the service and business of the Group, we take this opportunity to extend our warmest regards.

Anna Loredana Cassina - Virginio Cassina
